Basic Theology of Sports Ministry

Introduction:

_____ is important.

Getting into the _____ of God is _____ if we're going to do sports ministry well.

There is no _____ in Scripture that speaks to a _____ of sports ministry.

While the Bible doesn't teach us about sports ministry per se, it does teach us about _____ and _____, and how _____ with Him we can reach, rescue, _____ and release children, youth and families to love and _____ for Jesus.

Five Theological Premises:

1 Sports ministry must be _____ focused.

- We do this by _____ Christ, _____ about the cross, _____ and sharing the story about what He did on the cross, and _____ people to _____ by faith in Him. Colossians 1:19-20.

2 Sports ministry needs to prioritize _____.

- Sixty percent of all Christian adults come to faith in Christ before _____ years of age.
- The _____ we need to share with _____ is John 3:16.

3 Sports ministry is more than _____.

- It has _____ value and can be used for _____ and disciple making.
- It has _____ worth and is a means for us to take _____ in the Lord. Psalm 37:4.

4 Sports ministry is about _____ God with our _____.

- We must teach four things.
 1. Play according to the _____.
 2. Don't be _____.
 3. Discipline your _____.
 4. Bring _____ to God.

1 Corinthians 6:20, Romans 12:1, 2 Timothy 2:5, Hebrews 6:12a, 1 Corinthians 9:26-27, 1 Corinthians 10:21.

5 Sports ministry is about fulfilling the _____.

- It's everyone going _____, teaching, connecting, and _____ the love of Christ. Matthew 28:19-20.

Conclusion:

Balancing is _____.

You can create a theology of sports ministry for your context. Get _____ to help you. Ask the _____, the Helper, to be with you.

To do sports ministry well we need the _____ of practice and theology. Sports ministry will _____ when we keep theology and practice in right _____.

Next Steps:

You should have a written theology of ministry for your sports ministry activity/initiative/organization. Good theology leads to good practice.
