

School of KidsMin Worksheet

Creating a Christ-Centered Home School

Benefits of home schooling:

What are some benefits that you see in home schooling?

There are so many benefits ... _____, freedom to _____, opportunity to do things at their _____ (or yours), and _____ disciplined instruction. As well as real-life _____ between your children and others, with you, with _____ and with _____.

Typical home schooling day:

- Start with high _____ (e.g. make bed, get dressed, brush hair, brush teeth, drink water and one chore)

- Breakfast

- 3 hours of schooling (e.g. bookwork, _____, copying, math, writing, etc.)

- Lunch

- _____ time (activities can include _____ books, _____, playdoh, _____ pictures)

- Errands and house _____

- Supper

- Evening activities, devotions, and _____ time

- Friday's for _____ trips and _____ days.

Eight tips for Christ-centered home schooling:

1. Include _____.
2. Get into God's _____.
3. Scripture _____.
4. Read and discuss _____.
5. _____.
6. Be in _____.
7. _____ others.
8. It starts with _____.

How can your family uniquely serve others?

Christie adds that while she didn't mention it in the video, prayer is vitally important and foundational for a Christ-centered home school.

Resources: childrensministrybasics.com scriptureunion.ca